Christopher Vought II

Licensed Home Inspector -
ASHI Associate Member -
Energy Auditor with Southern NH Services
March 7, 2017, Christopher and Haley James were students together

I met Haley recently at an annual Home Inspection Conference. We attended many courses together and got to talk extensively, both business and personal, and although we are located on opposite sides of the country, we've kept in touch fairly regularly. Haley is an honest and upstanding guy with extensive knowledge in our broad field of Home Inspections. He brings professionalism, charisma and attention to detail to our industry. I would be more than willing to have Mile High Property Inspections inspect my own home or my friends and family's homes.

different companies

Haley is a super Home Inspector who adds to our group of dedicated hard workers who are thorough and put the client first. Our team has used him several times and all of our clients have been extremely pleased with his home inspections. Thank you Haley for your expertise.
